

17th Napa Pain Conference

August 13th – 15th, 2010
Meritage Conference Center
Napa, California

The 17th Napa Pain Conference will cover practical issues in pain management, which are of importance to specialists and primary care providers. Pain management specialists such as anesthesiologists, neurosurgeons, neurologists and physiatrists, along with allied health care professionals, will have an interest in this special program. The Napa Pain Conference also offers unique biotechnology and practice management seminars. These will include special sessions dedicated to practice managers as well as roundtable discussions.

Research Prize

Research prize awarded to the best poster as judged by the research committee during the conference. Details available at www.NapaPainConference.com or through Rebecca Fiedel at rebecca@NapaPainInstitute.com. Poster submissions are welcome for consideration through July 16, 2010.
